IN THE
UNITED STATES

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

1894

QUESTION.—What is thy only comfort in life and death?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head: yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation: and therefore, by His Holy Spirit. He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

TENTH
and MARKET Sts.,
PHILADELPHIA,

LEADING SCHOOL OF
BUSINESS and SHORTHAND

As the instruction is individual, not in classes, students may enroll any time for a full, a partial, or a special course, as may be desired.

This institution attained its high standing through the superiority of the instruction and the unprecedented success attending students in their business engagements.

It is patronized and endorsed by the leading business men of Philadelphia, who make it the Headquarters from which to secure well-trained Book-keepers, Stenographers, Cashiers, Typewriters, Correspondents, etc. This is done without expense to either employer or student.

We hold ourselves responsible for the ability of every young man and woman recommended. We are justified in reposing this confidence in the efficient training of our students, because the demand for them continues to be three-fold greater than the supply.

JANUARY.

The New Year.

BEHOLD, the New Year beckons, like a flower
Hid in its roots among the untrodden hills;
God shows thee how its sweetness every hour
Grows only as His breath thy spirit fills!

Behold, the New Year beckons, like
a star,
A splendid mystery of the unfathomed skies;
God guide thee through His mystic spaces far,
Till all His stars as suns within thee rise!

The New Year beckons. He, too, beckoning, nears;
Forget not thou that all thy gifts are His!
Take from His hands all blessings
of the years,
And of the blossoming, starred eternities!

A Happy New Year!

To all the readers of the Almanac we send this, our annual greeting. The past year, like its predecessors, has brought its share of joy and sorrow, which should make us better prepared to enter on and live through the new one. This we can do if we put our trust in Him, in whose name and forwhose glory we spend it.

A Prayer for the New Year.

ALMIGHTY and Everlasting God, from Whom cometh down every good and perfect gift: We give Thee thanks for all Thy benefits, temporal and spiritual, bestowed upon us in the year past, and we beseech Thee of Thy goodness, grant us a favorable and joyful year, defend us from all dangers and adversities, and send upon us the fulness of Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. AMEN.

PHILIP SCHAFF, D.D., LL.D.,

Professor in Theological Seminary, Mercersburg, Pa.,
from 1844 to 1863;
Professor in Union Theological Seminary, N. Y. City,
from 1863 to 1893;
Now Professor Emeritus of the latter Seminary.

The Opening Year.

STANDING on the portal
Of the opening year,
Words of comfort meet us,
Hushing every fear;

Spoken through the silence
Of our Father's voice,
Tender, strong, and faithful,
Making us rejoice.
Onward then, and fear not,
Children of the day,
For His word shall never,
Never pass away.

The Safe Channel.

READER, you are sailing on the sea of life. Will you reach the harbor of immortality in safety? You will if you keep in the safe channel. You need not know all the sunken rocks which have wrecked many voyagers in days that are past, but you must know the safe path, and it is set forth in the words: "He that believeth shall be saved."

Almanac for 1894.

THIS is the thirty-first issue of this well-established and very popular year-book of the Church. It is sent forth, as usual, well filled with facts and figures concerning the Church. Pastors, consistories, mite and missionary societies, should aid in its circulation.

Reformed Church Messenger.

THE first English periodical of the Reformed Church in this country was published in 1832. It was in the form of a monthly magazine. This subsequently was changed to a semi-weekly, and in 1835 it was changed to a weekly, under the title of THE WEEKLY MESSENGER. Since then it has borne respectively the titles: GERMAN REFORMED MESSENGER, THE MESSENGER, and REFORMED CHURCH MESSENGER, the last being its present title.

Its present title is a significant and appropriate one; first, because it tells of what Church it is the organ, in whose behalf it speaks and whose interest it represents; second, it is truly a messenger of the Church, and bears to its readers from week to week a supply of good and wholesome reading matter and the general news of their own Church.

This being the case it is the paper for members of the Reformed Church to have and read, particularly those within the bounds of the three Synods: Eastern, Pittsburg, and Potomac, under whose auspices and authority it is published.

Its subscription price is two dollars a year, a little more than four cents per week—in advance. It will be sent to strictly new subscribers at one dollar for the first year. A sample copy can be had by applying to the publishers. Address, REFORMED CHURCH PUBLICATION HOUSE, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

SOME one has said: "It is not the business of the church to popularize Christianity, but to Christianize the populace." Many preachers forget this distinction, and so they have tried to trim and cut Christianity and make it conform to the notions of ungodly men. Doing this they have weakened Christianity and failed to win the favor of the populace.

MARCH.

SOCIETY FOR THE RELIEF OF MINISTERS AND THEIR WIDOWS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN U.S.

THIS is the oldest charitable institution in the Reformed Church in this country. It was organized one hundred years ago, and was incorporated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, March 26th, 1810. Its design is to assist ministers' widows and their families, and also superannuated and disabled ministers themselves, who are members of it, and whose pecuniary resources are not sufficient to give them a living, when no longer able to serve the Church.

There are two classes of members—annual contributing and life members. By paying an initiation fee of five dollars, and thereafter annually three dollars, a minister of our Church becomes the former, and by the payment of sixty-five dollars becomes the latter.

The principal income of the Society, however, is from invested funds and collections in the churches. Collections and donations for immediate use are earnestly solicited. That more attention should be given to this society and its worthy object cannot be disputed. Let it be remembered annually by individuals and congregations.

The officers are W. M. Deatrick, D. D., Mercersburg, Pa., President; E. V. Gerhart, D. D., LL. D., Lancaster, Pa., Vice-President; Rev. T. F. Hoffmeier, Middletown, Md., Secretary; Rev. S. S. Miller, St. Petersburg, Pa., Treasurer; and Revs. J. David Miller, Marysville, Pa., and S. E. Stofflet, Waynsboro', Pa., Advisors.

As a rule, it is unsociable people who complain about the unsociability of churches. A sociable person never fails in finding sociable people everywhere.

THE LATE GEORGE W. HENSEL, QUARRYVILLE, PA.

Died December 1st, 1892.

A Member of the Board of Trustees of Franklin and Marshall College, of Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., and of the Publication Board of the Reformed Church in U.S.

FOR EVERYBODY.

EVERYBODY has moods and tenses, so everybody will be interested in the following prescriptions:

If you are impatient, sit down quietly and have a talk with Job.

If you are strong-headed, view Moses.

If you are getting weak-kneed, look at Elijah.

If there is no song in your heart, listen to David.

If you are a policy man, read Daniel.

If you are getting sordid, spend awhile with Isaiah.

If chilly, get the beloved disciple to put his arms around you.

If your faith is below par, read Paul.

If you are getting lazy, watch James.

If you are losing sight of the future, climb up to Revelation and get a glimpse of the promised land.

THE OLD BELL CLAPPER.

SOME people are busied in confessing the sins of their fellows. They are blind to their own weaknesses; never dream of wrongs in their lives; always finding fault with the faults of others. The fable of the "Bell Clapper" is very appropriate to such grumblers. The bell in which this clapper hung had a crack, and it was always complaining of its sad fate of being hung in such a bell. At length the spirit of Diogenes, the old cynic, who could not endure shams, came along; he heard the clapper's complaint, and said: "Before you make any more fuss about the bell, remember two things: First you cracked it yourself, and second, nobody would know that it was cracked if you did not tell them." The moral is plain, but those who need to ponder it will be the last to see it.

APRIL.

Zion's Reformed Church, GREENVILLE, PA.

THIS Church was organized in 1860, by Rev. H. F. Hartman, the pastor of the Shenango charge. During the following year a Sunday-school was organized, and about the same time a neat church building was purchased from the Congregationalists.

April 1st, 1865, Rev. C. R. Dieffenbacher, D. D., became the first regular pastor. During the thirteen years of his pastorate the congregation grew from twenty members to nearly two hundred.

June 29th 1878, Rev. F. B. Hahn became pastor, and continued as such for six years. During this time the membership continued to grow, and a considerable sum was raised for a new church.

Dec. 1st, 1884, Rev. S. H. Eisenberg became pastor. During the five years of his pastorate this magnificent church building was erected at a cost of nearly $20,000.

May 16th, 1890, Rev. A. M. Keifer, the present pastor, was installed. The church is now free of debt, numbers three hundred and sixteen members, and is growing in strength and influence.

Two or three Bible promises taken after each meal will cure the most aggravated form of spiritual dyspepsia known.

The Synod of Pittsburg met in this Church, September 27th, 1893.

REV. A. M. KEIFER, PASTOR.

Home Happiness.

ALL our earthly pleasures are mockery in comparison to the contentment of a loving family circle. Other joys may last for a day, and excite our interest for the time, but they fade away and leave us unsatisfied. While they are present we feel not the emptiness of this excitement, but with their vanishing our hearts hunger for the blessings which home alone can give. Even they who have never known what it is to have loving hearts welcome them on the threshold, and loving hands minister to their comfort, know that these are life's most precious gifts, and thirst for a draught from the cup of peace.

THE MINISTER'S SALARY.

PAY that preacher's salary in full. Save your Church and yourself the disgrace of a deficit on that claim. Pay every dollar of it if it costs you a sacrifice. Why should you not make a sacrifice? The sacrificing element is the sanctifying element in gifts. Giving your mere surplus or what you can spare without pain amounts to little or nothing. Give deep down until self-denial is touched, and you will feel a joy and a power you never knew before in giving.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

THE Board of Foreign Missions is constituted as follows: — President, Rev. Jas. I. Good, D. D.; Vice-President, Rev. J. H. Prugh, D. D.; Secretary, Rev. S. N. Callender, D. D.; Treasurer, Elder Jas. L. Lemberger; Revs. A. R. Bartholomew, P. Greding, D. D., J. Dahlman, D. D., J. S. Kieffer, D. D., C. R. Dieffenbacher, D. D.; Elders, B. Kuhns, J. Y. Dietz and J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

The work in Japan is going forward with the most inspiring success. The educational policy adopted seven years ago has reached its fruitage. The primary aim is to raise up a native ministry, and to nurture girls into a Christian womanhood, and secondarily, to train up a Christian laity, both male and female. Our two schools are of the proportions of colleges, and in the summer of 1893 the first-class, of four students in each school, reached graduation. The whole number of students in the Tohoku Gakuin during the last year was 179. Of these 96 are Christians, 52 of whom are candidates for the ministry, and 39 seekers. There are 22 students in the Theological Department. Several of these are already engaged in regular evangelistic work.

In the Girls' School, there were 58 scholars during the year, 51 at the close of the term, 22 of whom are Christians. Two were baptized, and 8 were catechumens. This school has already produced one Bible woman, and two of the late graduates are ready to enter upon such Christian work as the mission may assign them. The two Misses Poorbaugh retired permanently from the mission in July, 1893, and Rev. Dr. J. P. Moore and his wife, for the time being, have taken their places. This school is under the control of the mission, of which all the regular American Missionaries, both male and female, are members.

The ingathering of souls continues encouraging, and the future growth of the work depends upon the increased liberality of the home church.

THE LOWEST PLACE.

GIVE me the lowest place, not that I dare
Ask for that lowest place,
but Thou hast died,
That I might live and share
Thy glory by Thy side.

Give me the lowest place; or if for me
That lowest place too high,
make one more low,
Where I may sit and see
My God, and love Thee so.

LESSON HELPS FOR OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

THE lesson helps are now published under the auspices of the Sunday-school Board of the General Synod. The same lessons and comments are used all over the Church, East and West, North and South. There is a great improvement in them over those formerly published. They consequently are calculated to aid greatly; teachers and scholars, in the study of their lessons. Teachers have the Heidelberg Teacher for their use. The large scholars have the Scholars' Quarterly and the Advanced Lesson Papers, whilst the infant scholars have the Primary Lesson Paper for their use. The comments upon the lessons are from the standpoint of the Church, and consequently the Helps containing them are the only proper ones for Sunday-schools of the Reformed Church to use. This should claim the attention of officers of the Sunday-schools of the Church. Reformed Schools should use nothing else.

BENEFICIARY EDUCATION.

THE Church has her Boards of Education, whose duty it is to receive funds and devote them toward aiding pious young men in their preparation for the Gospel Ministry.

Each of the Synods has its Board. That of the Eastern Synod is known as the Parent Board.

Funds are needed by all of them. Were large amounts at their command, the number of young men in our institutions, preparing for the ministry, would be much greater.

The attention of those who would thus further the cause of Christ, by giving of their means with which the Lord has prospered them, is called to this sacred cause, committed to the several Boards of Education. For the addresses of the several Treasurers, see—WHERE TO SEND CHURCH MONEY.

“It is good for me to draw near to God.”
Good for my weak faith; good for my troubled heart; good for my doubting soul; good for my peace, my joy, and my hope.

THE MISSIONARY GUARDIAN.

THIS Magazine is for our whole Church. It is devoted to the interest of Missions, Home and Foreign, and is under the editorial supervision of the Boards of the Church, with Chas. G. Fisher, D. D., as Managing Editor, with the following assistants: D. S. Fouse, D. D., and S. N. Calleender, D. D. It also has a department in the interests of Woman's Missionary Society, which is in charge of Miss Rebecca Hamilton Schively, Secretary of W. M. S. G. S. It contains twenty-four pages, and is issued monthly at 50 cents a year. It is published by the Reformed Church Publication House, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Every one interested in missions should be a subscriber. The missionary societies of the Church should take an active part in its circulation.

Send to the publishers for specimen copies. Encourage this new enterprise in behalf of the great work of missions.

Trinity Reformed Church, GETTYSBURG, PA.

Prior to 1834 the history of this congregation is largely involved in obscurity. No records seem to have been kept; but from tradition and other more or less reliable sources, it is clear that it was organized as early as 1790. In 1811, a union Church—Reformed and Lutheran—was built. Who were the pastors; what were the strength and standing of the congregation, from the date of organization to the time of the building of the Church, and from that time to 1834, are matters that cannot now be determined. About the year 1850, the congregation bought the Lutheran interest. In 1851 the old Church was taken down and a new one erected upon the old site. This was a very plain building with two Sunday-school rooms and a seating capacity for about 450 people.

During, and for some time after, the battle, July 1st, 2d and 3d, 1863, this building was used as a hospital, and was so much injured that it had to be extensively repaired. In it the congregation worshiped until 1890, when it was changed and remodeled, and is now one of the most commodious and beautiful churches in Adams county. From the time when an authentic history of the congregation begins,

The Synod of the Potomac met in this Church, October 17th, 1893.

REV. T. J. BARKLEY, PASTOR.

the names of nine pastors appear upon the records, to wit: David Bossler, Benjamin S. Schneck, Samuel Gutelius, E. V. Gerhart, Jacob Ziegler, T. P. Bucher, W. R. H. Deatrich, Moses Kieffer, and the present incumbent, T. J. Barkley.

FAMILY PRAYER.

The prayer of the family is to be—not form or decent ceremony, but—real, humble, trustful service in which, guided by the word and Spirit of God, the family brings the details of actual life with becoming fervor before the Divine and all-ruling Father with gratitude, submission, hope, confidence, and in which the weak human souls take hold together on infinite strength. He honors them that honor Him. He dwells with them who invite His presence. That presence lightens the gloom of life, and brightens all its joys. His blessing gives that safe prosperity with which no sorrow is linked, as it is sure to be where he is ignored in unblissed prosperity. O, men and brethren whom God has placed at the head of families, where he gives you homes, be sure that you set up altars!—Rev. John Hall.

AIM to be happy five minutes at a time, and you will be surprised to find how easy it will come to rejoice all day.

JOS. L. LEMBERGER,
LEBANON, PA.

Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions.

JOHN J. NISSLAY,
HUMMELSTOWN, PA.

Treasurer of Bi-Synodic Board of Missions.

CHRISTIAN M. BOUSH,
MEADVILLE, PA.

Treasurer of Church Extension, Board of Missions General Synod.

Board of Home Missions of General Synod.

THIS Board has under its care all the English missions of the Church. The Board as re-organized at the General Synod at Reading, consists of the following members: Revs. J. A. Peters, D. D., E. R. Eschbach, D. D., J. H. Sechler, D. D., J. J. Leberman, D. D., S. B. Yockey, D. D., J. Bachman, D. D., T. J. Barkley and C. F. Kriete, and Elders C. M. Boush, H. C. Hoover, J. T. Reber and Horace Aukeny.

The Executive Committee is constituted as follows: Rev. J. A. Peters, Pres't, Rev. T. J. Barkley, Sec'y, Revs. S. B. Yockey, D. D., J. J. Leberman, D. D., and Elder C. M. Boush. Elder Boush is also the Treasurer of the Church Extension Department.

The unification of the mission work under one Board was a forward movement of vast importance.

The good effect of the movement can already be noticed. There are now, including the Harbor Mission in New York, eighty-seven missions under the direct care of the Board. Those under the control of the German synods make the whole number over one hundred and thirty. Eight missions became self-supporting during the year. For the ensuing year, 1894, no less a sum than $40,000 will be required to carry forward the work. The Harbor Mission in New York is doing a good work. For this purpose General Synod apportioned $3000 on the Church for the triennial term.

The Hungarian work is progressing. A third missionary will soon be on the ground. A kind and benevolent citizen of Pittsburgh gave $500 recently towards the salary of an additional missionary for that city. But much more is needed. The Church should come up bravely to the help of the Board in this great work.

St. John's Reformed Church, LEBANON, PA.

THE corner stone of St. John's Reformed Church was laid May 22d, 1859. September 7th, 1860, the congregation was organized with 61 members, and Rev. Dr. Harbaugh was elected Pastor. October 18th, the Church was dedicated. The entire cost of building $22,000 (exclusive of ground), was secured in advance of dedication. The building was recently remodeled at a cost of $18,000 and is believed to be one of the most beautiful and best arranged in the denomination, and was rededicated during the session of General Synod in 1890.

In 1885 the commodious and well-arranged parsonage was erected at a cost of $6,000.

The Sunday-school Association first published the "Golden Censer" and "Harbaugh's Hymns and Chants," and the first contributions to the Board of Foreign Missions of the Church came from two members of the school. The congregation is in a very prosperous condition, and marked activity characterizes its operations. The present membership is 336. Its pastors have been: Rev. H. Harbaugh, D. D., 1860-1864; Rev. Thos. S. Johnston, D. D., 1864-1885; Rev. Geo. B. Resser, 1885-1891; Rev. Warren J. Johnson, 1891, present pastor.

The Eastern Synod met in this Church, October 18, 1893.

REV. W. J. JOHNSON, PASTOR.

The Sunday-School Work of the Re- formed Church.

THE Sunday-school Work of the Reformed Church is under the supervision and direction of the Sunday-school Board of the General Synod. To it is committed the preparation of the Lesson-Helps for our schools, and the extension and improvement of Reformed Sunday-schools. By action of the last General Synod the Board elected a General Secretary, who is to devote his entire time to the work. The duty of this officer is to devise such measures as will tend to arouse a deeper interest in the Sunday-school work in our denomination; to make such work more thorough and useful; to bring about a more earnest and careful study of God's word; to awaken Christian, and especially Reformed Church members, to the supreme importance of bringing the gospel into the hearts and lives of the youth in our churches; and to have editorial supervision of our Sunday-school literature.

All our schools are asked to contribute at least one cent per member, toward the carrying forward of the general Sunday-school work.

Rev. Rufus W. Miller was elected the first incumbent of the office of Sunday-school Secretary, and entered on his duties October 1st, 1893.

DEACONS.

THE office of deacon ranks next to the eldership and ministry. The diaconate is mentioned in Scripture, its original work described, and high honor given to it. Deacons were first chosen to aid the apostles in applying the alms of the congregation, and especially to look after the poor. Their work, however, soon expanded and enlarged the scope of their influence. Stephen, the first martyr of the Christian Church, was a deacon, and a bold witness for Gospel truth. The deacon Philip became a famous evangelist, through whom the spirit wrought mightily. It is right to honor the office, and to esteem the office-bearer for his work's sake. There are good and bad men in the diaconate as everywhere else, though a peculiar field is given them to show themselves worthy followers of Christ. Many a deacon is as highly esteemed by the people as his pastor; he shares the responsibility of the congregation; he can make his hand-clasps among the young a benediction, and be to them a father to guide them in the way of truth.

IT is a hard thing to be a faithful Christian, but this is no reason why the Christian life should not be chosen. It is a hard thing to be a business man; it demands industry, sagacity, patience, and foresight; but the difficulties in the way of business success are never regarded as a sufficient excuse for not engaging in trade or commerce.

THE LATE ROBERT PATTERSON, OF PHILADELPHIA,

Died April 19th, 1893.

A Director of Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.; principal donor of Bomberger Memorial Hall. Bequeathed $160,000 to Ursinus College.

who seems to have the same burdens that I have, and so I am helped." This is one of the advantages of Christian fellowship. The best things in Christian experience are shared with others. The social prayer-meeting is one of the helps to personal holiness.

'TIS OUR PART

As Christians to forget the wrongs we feel;
To pardon trespasses; our very foes
To love and cherish; to do good to all;
Live peaceably; and seek to be in all our acts
Wise as the serpent, gentle as the dove.

Loving and Giving.

Lord, teach us the lesson
of loving,
The very first lesson of
all;
O thou who dost love little children,
How tender and sweet
is thy call!
Now help us to hear it, and give thee
The love thou art asking
to-day;
Then help us to love one another;
For this we most earnestly pray.

Lord, teach us the lesson
of giving,
For this is the very next
thing;
Our love always ought to be showing
What offerings and fruits
it can bring.
There are many who know
not thy mercy,
There are millions in
darkness and woe;
Our prayers and our gifts
are all needed,
And all can do something, we know.

A CHRISTIAN said:
"I love to attend the
prayer-meeting, because some one is almost sure to offer prayer

Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod.

THIS Society was organized in Akron, O., June, 1887. Its object is to aid in the advancement of the work of Christian missions in home and foreign lands with a view especially to the enlightenment and elevation of woman. It is actively engaged in planning new work, organizing congregational and classical societies, and raising money for home and foreign work.

“CHARGE not thyself with the weight of a year,
Child of the Master faithful and dear.
Choose not the cross for the coming week,
For that is more than He bids thee seek.
Bend not thine arms for to-morrow’s load—
Thou mayst leave that to thy gracious God,
Daily only He saith to thee,
‘Take up thy cross, and follow Me.’”

WE FEED upon what we read, but digest only what we meditate upon.—Bengel.

Our Orphans' Homes.

St. Paul's, Butler, Pa.—Rev. P. C. Prugh, D.D., Superintendent. Number of children, 65.

Remember these at Christmas time.

LITTLE self-denials, little honesties, little passing words of sympathy, little nameless acts of kindness, little silent victories over favorite temptations—these are the threads of gold which, when woven together, gleam so brightly in the pattern of life that God approves.—F.W. Farrar.

LET him who enters the sick room to give comfort, remember that a single promise from the Word is better than a chapter, and that a cheery, hopeful sentence is better than a sermon.

TRINITY CHURCH, YORK, PA. J. O. MILLER, D.D., PASTOR.

The Gift Season.

OUR Saviour is the gift of heaven to us. His birthday has become the great gift season among the people in Christian lands.

ALL pleasures must be bought at the price of pain. The difference between false pleasure and true pleasure is just this—for the true, the price is paid before you enjoy it; for false, after you enjoy it.

PASTORAL care, pastoral work, pastoral visitation, will bridge the chasm and bind the masses to the Church with rivets stronger than steel. All the discussion about the preacher's influence declining would be hushed if pastoral visiting were the practice of the pulpit. The power of the preacher will decline, the masses will be alienated from the Church, if the ministry for any cause neglects pastoral visiting.—Nashville Christian Advocate.

A Christ-like Christmas is to "go about doing good."

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ANDREW AND PHILIP.

THE Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip is now both denominational and inter-denominational. Four denominations are regularly represented in the Federal Council which carries on the more general work, and issues a monthly — The Brotherhood Star—devoted to the interest of Christian work among young men. One hundred and fifty chapters are enrolled from the two Reformed Churches, and the Presbyterian and the Congregational. And there are chapters not enrolled in the Methodist, Lutheran and Baptist Churches. The chapters are scattered throughout 25 states of the Union, and in all the large cities as well as in smaller places, and in country churches. The Brotherhood fundamentals are, namely, the pledging of the members to the two Rules of Prayer and Service, and willingness to do the work assigned to them by the pastor.

The Brotherhood is flexible in its working. In one congregation the most of its energy is expended upon a Young Men's Bible Class; in another, on a Mission Sunday-school or Invitation Work; in a third, on a Men's Prayer Meeting; and in a fourth, it takes charge of the ushering of the Church.

The Brotherhood has already done much for the Church through the personal activity of its members and has rendered special service to the Reformed Church by calling attention to the historic colors of the Church of Switzerland, Germany and the Netherlands, through its badge—the Red, Orange and Black, thus recalling the glorious struggle for civil and religious freedom, and gospel truth, in which the Reformed patriots conquered for the world. And it has brought honor to the Reformed Church, as well as made her better known, by giving the Federal form of government, and the Brotherhood idea to the large denominations of our land. Rev. Rufus W. Miller is the President of the Federal Council, and T. A. Wonder, General Secretary, 1423 Mosher St., Baltimore, Md. The first Federal Convention was held November 2d and 3d, 1893, in the Marble Collegiate Reformed Church, 29th Street and Fifth Avenue, New York City. It was largely attended and measures were taken, which will doubtless advance the work more rapidly than ever. Many Christian Endeavor Societies now have a Brotherhood Committee composed of young men who pledge themselves to the two Rules of the Brotherhood.

Pastors who desire to find work for their young men, whereby they will more readily lay hold of other young men, drawing them into the services of the Church, and so into the possibilities of all good, are invited to correspond with the General Secretary, and to establish chapters in their congregations. Earnest young men may also find here suggestions for the directions of their powers which will greatly enhance their usefulness.

Give the young men something to do.

NEW SEMINARY BUILDING, LANCASTER, PA.

THE corner-stone of the above beautiful and commodious building was laid with appropriate ceremonies Thursday, June 15th, 1893. It is built of brown stone and red brick. The style is an adaptation of the modern Romanesque. Is well arranged for the convenience and accommodation of Professors and students, and contains lecture rooms, chapel and library, the last is fire proof.

"LEST riches should be accounted evil in themselves, God sometimes gives them to the righteous; and lest they should be considered as the chief good, he frequently bestows them on the wicked."

—Seeker.

PEOPLE generally go in the direction they look. If they look upward, they are moving higher. If they continually see the lower and baser things of life, they are traveling in that direction.

OUR ADVERTISERS.

WE would call attention to the advertisements in this issue of the Almanac. They are of a select class, and the several advertisers are well worthy of the confidence of those who have need to patronize them. Mention Almanac.

PREMIUM TRACTS, Nos. 1, 2 AND 3,

ARE you a reader of your church paper?

CLAREMONT FEMALE COLLEGE, HICKORY, N. C., REV. J. L. MURPHY, A. M., PRESIDENT.

THE ANSWER.

How are we to increase our interest in missions? We must seek an intelligent and definite acquaintance with the past history and present operations of missions. In other words, we must adopt rational means to foster our interest in missions.

Now, how much missionary literature have we in our homes? And what place does it hold in our reading? Missionary histories, biographies and magazines ought to have the place of honor in the literature of our households. We should make such reading the first ourselves. We should teach our children to make it the first. We should make them feel that we reckon an interest in missionary intelligence above all proficiency in learning and all distinction in their schools or universities. We should inspire them with reverence for our missionaries, as our greatest and noblest men.—Gospel in all Lands.

A BIT OF HISTORY.

IN 1730 there were in Pennsylvania about 15,000 Reformed people. About the year 1745, thousands of immigrants arrived in this country, and settled in the fertile valleys of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. They organized congregations, and were edified with singing and the school-master's reading of sermons and prayers. When Schlatter came, there were some forty-five Reformed congregations in existence. He placed the number of Reformed people at 30,000.

“Do good unto all men,” says Paul in Gal. 6; which means that our holy religion is as broad in its grasp as was the love which brought our Saviour to earth. Nothing less than this should give us rest.

Theological Seminary

OF THE
REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES,
LANCASTER, PA.

→ FOUNDED AT CARLISLE, MARCH, 1825 ←

HE Institution is conducted under the supervision and direction of the three (English) Eastern Synods: The Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, organized in 1747; the Synod of Pittsburgh, organized in 1870; and the Synod of the Potomac, organized in 1873.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees consisting of EIGHTEEN Elders, or Laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority and oversight of a Board of Visitors, consisting of TWELVE ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and members of the three Synods, by each in proportion to its strength as to numbers.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years, and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry. The confessional standard of doctrine is the Heidelberg Catechism.

The Seminary year begins on the first Thursday of September. Boarding can be obtained at $3.50 per week. For further information, address the President of the Faculty.

with patent tone-muffler and harmonic scale. The patent tone-muffler is a merciful attachment, both for the listener who is annoyed by constant practicing, and also for the instrument itself, the hammers of which it protects from wear, and preserves the piano's full and round tone—nearly doubling the period of its usefulness.

THE NEW EDITION
OF THEGenuine Oxford Teacher's BibleTHE MOST REMARKABLE BIBLICAL COMPILATION OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

WITH NEW HELPS.

Revised throughout by the soundest Biblical authorities in accordance with the most recent investigations, and a magnificent new series of maps, containing, it is believed, the names of all places mentioned in the Bible, the sites of which have been clearly identified, not only as printed in the Authorized Version, but also as they appear in the more accurate forms adopted in the Revised Version.

In every division of the work, frequent reference has been made to the Revised Version, a competent knowledge of which is universally regarded as invaluable and indispensable to Bible students. The requirements of both the Authorized and Revised Versions having been thus provided for, and the vast resources of modern research and scholarship laid under contribution, this Edition is now submitted as an eminently comprehensive Handbook for the use of Teachers and Students, and the daily-increasing body of Bible readers generally, amongst the whole English-speaking people of the Old World and the New.

This well-known volume in its present form has lost nothing of its former utility, but is further enriched with new authentic information of every description, arranged with the closest attention to facility of reference. Thus enlarged, the book has become by far the most instructive and exhaustive compendium of every kind of information essential to Biblical study, and will be found an invaluable companion for every preacher and minister of religion, every teacher, and every private student.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF FREDERICK, MD.

An Institution for the thorough training of young ladies in all that pertains to a liberal education, amid surroundings most conducive to the formation of genteel manners and Christian character . . . . .

THE POTOMAC SYNOD OF THE REFORMED CHURCH has secured, by lease, the fine buildings and excellent equipment of the FREDERICK FEMALE SEMINARY, and through a Board of Directors of its own appointing, will henceforth carry forth the work so generously begun and continued there during the past fifty years.

The location of Frederick is unsurpassed as to general healthfulness of climate, beauty and fertility of environment, and ease of access by railroads and stage-routes. The buildings of the Institution are equally fortunate in their situation within the city, from which they secure fire and police protection, supplies of gas and water, while still having round them ample grounds for their adornment and the recreation of the students. The furnishings of parlors, recitation-rooms, and students' apartments, far exceed the average of such institutions in elegance.

The course of instruction comprises two departments—the Preparatory, in which the common English branches are finished, and Latin and Algebra begun; and the Collegiate, in which Latin and Mathematics are continued, French or German begun, Natural Science, and Mental and Moral Philosophy carried through the course to graduation. The Preparatory Course, as outlined, requires two, and the Collegiate four years, for completion. Pupils will be admitted to any class on examination, or on diploma or approved certificate from some reliable institution. A full Music Course may also be pursued at the Institution, or music may be elected in the Classical Course in lieu of certain branches. Art may also be made a specialty under the most accomplished of artists.

The Faculty is composed of competent instructors, who have made their departments of work a specialty, and have achieved success in them. Beside the President, Vice-President and Matron, six teachers give their entire time, and three others part of their time, to the work of the school.

During the year 1893-4, upwards of eighty young ladies enrolled themselves in the various departments of the School, with prospects of a material increase for the ensuing year.

Terms as reasonable as can be secured anywhere for like advantages. Liberal reduction made where work is taken in more than one department, where more than one pupil comes from the same family, and to daughters of ministers. For Catalogue, giving full particulars, address the President,

I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N.Y.

COLT'S NECK, N. J., July 4th, 1893.

MR. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, New York, Dear Sir:—I enclose check in full for Reflector. We received it in perfect order, and had it hung without trouble.
We have used it two Sabbath evenings. The congregations were delighted, both with its fine appearance and the brilliancy, yet softness of its light, which enables one to read “pearl type” in the remotest corner of the church. It far surpasses our highest expectations, as we do not require any other lamps for the pulpit or elsewhere, except two for the choir and organ, and these are rendered necessary only on account of the position of the latter.

Thanking you for your courtesy, liberality and prompt attention in filling our order,

Yours very sincerely,

REV. S. R. CUNNINGHAM,

Pastor Reformed Dutch Church.

100 copies of any writing or drawing in twenty minutes. This is a new apparatus
for duplicating
copies of writings
or drawings.

It is the cleanest, cheapest and simplest, as well as the most reliable duplicating apparatus in existence. Requires no washing; any boy can work it.

From an original, on any ordinary paper, with any pen, 100 copies can be made, or with an original written on the typewriter, 50 copies can be produced quickly and without trouble in fifteen minutes.

The simplicity and ease with which copies of letters, circulars, price-lists, examination papers, drawings, specifications, music, etc., can be reproduced in various colors at one operation makes it invaluable.

Agents wanted everywhere. Send for circulars and sam-
